The US Army Corps of Engineers makes guaranteeing you a campsite or group picnic area much easier by using the National Recreation Reservation Service (NRRS). Lake Sonoma can be popular during the busy summer season. Making a reservation can be a good idea, especially if you want a specific site.

To Make A Reservation:

1. Contact the National Recreation Reservation Service in one of two ways, by phone or online.

4. Reservations are site specific so let the agent know what site you want. Please call the Visitor Center for more information about the sites.
